

VIVA VOCE SAMPLE QUESTION PAPER-SET-11

1. How did you deal with the ethical implications of your work?
2. What is the strongest point in your research?
3. Why do you think your research is reliable?
4. Do your findings relate to existing literature?
5. Do you think there might be some biases existing in your research?
6. What are your recommendations after your research?
7. What are the statistical tools used by you?
8. Describe the sample population for your research.
9. What are the ways in which your findings can be put into practice?
10. If you would redo your research, what would you do differently?
11. What is the relevance of your work to other researchers?
12. What are the major issues in your subject areas?
13. Do you think your research is correct?
14. What approach did you choose for your research?
15. What does your study change in your subject area?
16. How do your research contributions generalize?
17. What uses does your research hold for policymakers?
18. What is your procedure for qualitative analysis in your research?
19. What was your process for standard measurements?

20. Do you have any closing comments?

EDIFICATION.EDU